KOVALAM

Full day city tour of Kanyakumari where Arabian sea Indian Ocean and Bay of Bangal meets at a point.Kanyakumari, also known as Cape Comorin, is the 'Land's End' of India. The three seas - the Bay of Bengal, the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea meet here and a dip in their confluence is considered holy. It has a great spiritual significance for the Hindus. It's dedicated to goddess Devi Kanya, a form of Parvati, the consort of Shiva. Kanya Kumari is essentially a Hindu pilgrim centre, renowned for its exotic sunrises and sunsets over the horizon. Chaitra Purnima (Tamil for the April Full Moon) is one of the best times to experience the sunset and moonrise over the ocean simultaneously.

Visit Kumari Amman Temple - is the shore temple dedicated to the virgin goddess Devi Kanyakumari (Parvati), who stands guard over the country. The legend of this temple is as romantic as the place itself. The temple is built at the spot where the goddess is believed to have done penance and waited for her consort Lord Shiva to come and claim her hand in marriage. Also visit Gandhi Memorial - which is raised at the spot where his ashes were kept for public darshan (viewing) before they were immersed in the sea. The memorial resembles an Orissan temple and was designed so that on Gandhi's birthday (2nd October), the sun's rays fall on the place where his ashes were kept. Vivekananda Memorial - is located on two rocky islands about 400m offshore. Swami Vivekananda meditated here in 1892 before setting out as one of India's most important religious crusaders. The mandapam (pillared hall) built here in his memory in 1970 reflects architectural styles from all over the country.
